

CARMEN Workshop

Latin Sociolinguistics: Methodology, Problems, Questions, Research Trends

September 16–17, 2022, Rome, La Sapienza, Vetrerie di Sciarra, Aula Seminari e Tesi

lead by PIERA MOLINELLI
(Università degli studi di Bergamo)

Programme

Friday, September 16

- 09:00–11:00 Lesson 1
PIERA MOLINELLI, Historical sociolinguistics and the Latin language: an overview
- Including a presentation by ELEONORA MAIELLO on the ways of speaking of the Hereafter and resurrection in ecclesiastical and secular inscriptions in 4th–5th century Italy
- 11:00–11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30–13:30 Lesson 2
CHIARA FEDRIANI (Univ. of Genoa), Tracing sociolinguistic variation in literary texts
- Including a presentation by GABRIËL DE KLERK on the relationship between emotion and masculinity in ancient metrical epitaphs
- 13:30–15:00 Lunch break
- 15:00–17:00 Lesson 2 (continued)
CHIARA FEDRIANI, Tracing sociolinguistic variation in literary texts

Saturday, September 17

- 09:00–11:00 Lesson 3
IRENE DE FELICE (Univ. of Genoa), Tracing sociolinguistic variation in non-literary texts
- 11:00–11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30–13:30 Lesson 3 (continued)
IRENE DE FELICE, Tracing sociolinguistic variation in non-literary texts
- Including two presentations: one by ELENI OIKONOMOU on the ways in which the affection towards children is projected in Christian Latin verse inscriptions and the other by PENELOPE FAITHFULL on military lives and identities in Latin verse inscriptions